

Tuesday Morning Prayer

Philippians 1:22-26

April 21, 2015

22 If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.

- Pray God will help you live each day pursuing the “fruitful labor” of sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Pray God will bring about an awareness for the opportunities that exist in your life to engage in this labor.
- Pray God will open new doors of opportunity in the Ridgeland community for Colonial Heights to engage in ministry.
- As we look around Ridgeland and see the fields, “white unto harvest,” pray more and more of our membership will hear their call as a worker in His harvest field.

23 I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. 24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account.

- Especially during an interim time, pray God will prevent us, as a church, from becoming distracted by thinking about the future, but give us a passion for the work He has for us today.
- Pray our senior adults would not miss their opportunities for ministry as they may find themselves yearning to depart and be with Jesus.

25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

- Pray God will bring someone into your life to encourage your progress and joy in the faith.
- Pray God will show you how to become this encouragement for someone else.
- Pray God will strengthen you as you pursue a stronger relationship with Him through times like this, the study of His word, fellowship with other believers, and ministry opportunities.
- Pray Colonial Heights will continue to be a local church where our membership is continuing to experience progress and joy in the faith as we develop deep relationships with one another and with our Savior.
- Pray this reality will result in great glory for the name of Jesus Christ.

Tuesday Morning Prayer

Philippians 1:22-26

April 21, 2015

22 If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.

- Pray God will help you live each day pursuing the “fruitful labor” of sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Pray God will bring about an awareness for the opportunities that exist in your life to engage in this labor.
- Pray God will open new doors of opportunity in the Ridgeland community for Colonial Heights to engage in ministry.
- As we look around Ridgeland and see the fields, “white unto harvest,” pray more and more of our membership will hear their call as a worker in His harvest field.

23 I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. 24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account.

- Especially during an interim time, pray God will prevent us, as a church, from becoming distracted by thinking about the future, but give us a passion for the work He has for us today.
- Pray our senior adults would not miss their opportunities for ministry as they may find themselves yearning to depart and be with Jesus.

25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

- Pray God will bring someone into your life to encourage your progress and joy in the faith.
- Pray God will show you how to become this encouragement for someone else.
- Pray God will strengthen you as you pursue a stronger relationship with Him through times like this, the study of His word, fellowship with other believers, and ministry opportunities.
- Pray Colonial Heights will continue to be a local church where our membership is continuing to experience progress and joy in the faith as we develop deep relationships with one another and with our Savior.
- Pray this reality will result in great glory for the name of Jesus Christ.